

***
A1 All ways
My way goes both ways
it divides me and makes me the lonely one while your way went no way
But then lately
You seem to be over with bridge These eyes that went grey searching to understand but in the wrong way we kept each other from being alive, you denied, now you face me

A2 (½) But my way goes both ways Can't decide, make up my mind
And I fight for a better way

Bridge To love and to be
In a position where lovers are equal Believe and to feel
The strength that's grown Between you and me, so

B I'll come your way all ways
Won't disappear from love
I live in the moment, I know,
But my heart's not blind There's still hope to find

A4 So use a child's eyes
To compromise
These white wide wings
That still carry me
Still my deep wish
Is to distinguish between your self, your heart, your mind That's what you're still fighting

Bridge We've walked through darkness and light
And we swam under a deep oceans chorus
We've torn each others souls apart
But still our seeds grow
They resist our fights

B So, I'll come...
So, open your mind and let me in Show me your true self
And let us together travel miles in life
No more goodbyes.