

Lonely roses

A: It was a day I saw the most beautiful roses
It was a day I dared to look inside
But inside these beautiful roses
There were only loneliness to find
All saw, all it was, this beauty was a lie
And It made me cry as a lonely child
Who's left behind, left behind

Why does a rose have to alone
Among a thousands of it's same kind
Why do we have to know hellos to know goodbyes?

B: To face your truth is all I really really wanna do
Stop, then set our sail again
That's what I really really want us to do

C: I wanna love you I wanna hold you
But an anxious sigh in me makes me turn away
makes me run away
As far as possible
I wanna love you I wanna hold you
Cause there's no light here

B: To face your truth...adlib
