

Must talk

A1) Must talk,
Talk from a place that's in his heart
And I don't know
How to walk through his wall of words

Bridge1) that's in between
We're laying here
And he's far from being near me
I hope someday he's coming with only

B1) Silence to me
Heaven I wish again
:// that someday his heart will forget
All these words that are in between ://

A2) It's clear
My tower of silence makes a wall
But I really need you here
Though silence is screaming through my fear

Bridge2) Of losing you
We're laying here
And I'm far away from you
But I really hope that day is coming where we can be

B2) Silent, you see
Heaven I wish again
That someday his heart will forget
All these words that are in between
And someday my heart will be trusting
His deep love for me

I wonder if he ever get through my wall
And I wonder if I ever get through his wall
Yes, I wonder if I ever get through his wall... of words
